

Hatred Reborn

Hatesphere

Arise
To conquer
And enslave your minds
Becoming the next in line
To rip apart your fucking spine
I have emerged
Now let the ritual begin

Sink my teeth into the yielding throat
The taste of blood leaves me wanting more
I take this oath to this life I am sworn
To spread the darkness
I am hatred reborn

Embodiment
Of the future
With teachings of the past
Becoming the next in line
To wield the torch of hate
My lungs will scream these words
I will crush the earth

Sink my teeth into the yielding throat
The taste of blood leaves me wanting more
I take this oath to this life I am sworn
To spread the darkness
I am hatred reborn

Disciples
Do not have any kind of fear
A gift stowed upon me
Becoming the next in line
Wielding the legacy
Partake in destiny
This unholy cross is mine to bear

Sink my teeth into the yielding throat
The taste of blood leaves me wanting more
I take this oath to this life I am sworn
To spread the darkness
I am hatred reborn
