

Lick the salt off your hands
Like it makes any difference of who I am
I'm a familiar face, I'm a second plan
Don't make me out to be more than I really am

Spit it out, spit it out now
I wanted you to say it loud
Spit it out, spit it out now
Spit it out, spit it out now
I wanted you to say it loud
Spit it out, spit it out now

Make a choice for a change
Take a breath, say my name
I'm a familiar face, I'm a second plan
Don't make me out to be more than I really am

Spit it out, spit it out now
I wanted you to say it loud
Spit it out, spit it out now
Spit it out, spit it out now
I wanted you to say it loud
Spit it out, spit it out now

So spit it out, spit it out now
Spit it out, spit it out...

So spit it out, spit it out now
I wanted you to say it loud
Spit it out, spit it out now
Spit it out, spit it out now
I wanted you to say it loud
Spit it out, spit it out now
