

Don't Do It

Havok

I feel all alone
An empty shell of what used to be
Feel like a ghost
Psyche imposed by a mental cacophony

Falling falling falling down
Stalling stalling the urge to just let myself drown
Let myself drown

I want to end me
I know what I'm going to do
You weren't there for me
And now I won't be there for you
I want to end me
I know what I'm going to do
You were not there
Goodbye to you

I succumb to the misery
I must emancipate myself from this world
Dismissed by society
The pain builds up and consumes my soul
It consumes my soul

I want to end me
I know what I'm going to do
You weren't there for me
And now I won't be there for you
I want to end me
I know what I'm going to do
You were not there
Goodbye to you

Nobody listens, nobody cares
Pretty sure that no one will shed a tear
Don't want to run, don't want to hide
Just want to end it all and commit fuckin' suicide

Don't do it
Don't do it
Don't do it
Don't do it

Nobody listened, nobody cared
I know that no one will shed a tear
Can't run, can't hide
Gonna end it all and commit fuckin' suicide

Don't do it
Don't do it
