

I'm Learning To Live Today

Hawkwind

Got to find a way to start again
I'm learning to love today
Even though it's cold and grey
I'm learning, to love today
I'm learning to love today

(It doesn't matter who you are)

And I'm watching those waves
Wash our sins away
Those hidden feelings I knew before
I'm learning to love today
I'm learning to love today
I'm learning, I'm learning
I'm learning to love today

Is it time for us to go
And sit in the sunset bar
Watch the pretty girls walk by
Smiling, trying to catch their eyes

Watch those waves wash our sins away
Wash our sins away
In the sunset bar
