

The Camera That Could Lie

Hawkwind

Every time I go out, I think I'm being checked out Faceless people watching on a TV screen
Do you begin to sense it just beneath the surface Reflections of a window whilst walking down the street?

x2 Spying, lying, there's no denying
You can't escape, just be discreet

Computers are abused, school records are fed
Police are checking on what you said
The number of your car is fed into a box
Your journey's being checked, it's a paradox

Duplicate forms and ID cards are next in line to disregard
Future generations are relying on us
It's a world we've made, incubus
Future generations are relying on us
It's a world we've made, incubus

x2 Spying, lying, there's no denying
You can't escape, just be discreet

Don't be a sheep
Don't be a sheep
Don't be a sheep

the world is in your hands
