

Time We Left

Hawkwind

Time we left this world today
Time we left this world today
Time we left this world today
Time we left this world today
Time we left this world today
Time we left this world today
Time we left this world today
Time we left this world today
So many people seem to say
So many people seem to say
So many people seem to say
They watch you as you walk the street
They watch you as you walk the street
They watch you as you walk the street
They watch you as you walk the street

Cast sly glances at who you meet
Cast sly glances at who you meet
Cast sly glances at who you meet
Brain police are not far behind
Brain police are not far behind
Brain police are not far behind
Brain police are not far behind
Time we left this world today
Time we left this world today
Time we left this world today
Time we left this world today
Time we left this world today
Time we left this world today
Time we left this world today
Time we left this world today
Time we left this world today
Time we left this world today
Time we left this world today
Time we left this world today
So many people seem to say
So many people seem to say
So many people seem to say
They watch you as you walk the street
They watch you as you walk the street
They watch you as you walk the street
Cast sly glances at who you meet
Cast sly glances at who you meet
Brain police are not far behind
Brain police are not far behind
Brain police are not far behind
Time we left this world today
Time we left this world today
Time we left this world today
Time we left this world today
Time we left this world today
Time we left
Time we left
Time we left
