

We Two Are One

Hawkwind

We are your deep fears
Begun in your youth
All your dreams of the future
And your search for the truth
You feel every lifetime
Both rare and unknown
The dawn of creation
We are born of the stone

Into a place where matter doesn't
Witness the chaos of eternal motion
Perform an art of conscious being
Dance to rhythms of pulsating cycles
Question the reason of all your sorrows
Observe the beginning of your tomorrow

Symphony of souls yearning for more
Immersed in dreams
Unfolding of lives you've led
And the lives you'll lead

Transformed into echoes
Of your mortal residue
Our flesh and blood (Our flesh and blood)
We two are one (We two are one)
Our flesh is blood (Our flesh and blood)
We two are one (We two are one)
Our flesh and blood (Our flesh and blood)
We two are one (We two are one)
Our flesh and blood (Our flesh and blood)
We two are one (We two are one)
