Stranded

Hawthorne Heights

I reached into my pocket and
Pulled the letter out
I read it over and again
To myself and then out loud
I found myself standing still
In the front yard of your house
I looked into the windows and
Hung my head in doubt

Oh no
This is abandon
Oh no (oh no!)
I'm stranded all alone

Are we, are we broken
Or are we, are we, are we dead
I found a little fire, flickering
Inside my chest, inside my chest
I loved you there

I thought I'd have another chance
To see your face again
I gave you all that's within my heart
You offered me this pen
I wrote down words and diagrams
To plan my way back in
The rolling credits and fireworks
Signals such an end

Oh no
I've been abandoned
Oh no (oh no!)
I'm stranded all alone

Are we, are we broken
Or are we, are we, are we dead
I found a little fire, flickering
Inside my chest, inside my chest
I loved you there

Where did I go wrong
And how did these days get so long
Where did I go wrong
And how did these days get so long

I woke up one morning,
And everything was gone, gone
Lord where did I go wrong

Are we, are we broken
Or are we, are we, are we dead
I found a little fire, flickering
Inside my chest, inside my chest
I loved you there
