

Deep Diving

Turning pages
Changing places
Saving faces
You were graceless, why'd you waste this?
Now I'm deep in Cold and naked
Lost and broken
It's been stolen, can't replace this

Looking for peace but I struggle to find it
Try not to bury it all but I can't hide it
And I keep and I keep and I keep diving
Got me deep, got me deep, got me deep
