

Imagine

Hayden James

All four walls are closing in
Losing head space
But there's somewhere that I've been
Where there's no heart ache

The nights, they feel so holy
These skies will never leave you lonely

Oh, if you meet me there
Can you imagine what we'll see?
The sun will never set
Forever rising from the deep
In your darkest days you can watch them fade away
Heaven is calling
So if you meet me there
Can you imagine? Oh just imagine

Oh just imagine
Oh just imagine
Oh just imagine
Oh just imagine

You were holding up the weight
Of the water
A new reflection on the waves
Waiting for you

The nights, they feel so holy
These skies will never leave you lonely

Oh, if you meet me there
Can you imagine what we'll see?
The sun will never set
Forever rising from the deep
In your darkest days you can watch them fade away
Heaven is calling
So if you meet me there
Can you imagine? Oh just imagine

Can you imagine? Oh just imagine
Can you imagine? Oh just imagine
Can you imagine? Oh just imagine
Can you imagine? Oh just imagine

Can you imagine?
Oh just imagine

Oh, if you meet me there
Can you imagine what we'll see?
The sun will never set
Forever rising from the deep
In your darkest days you can watch them fade away
Heaven is calling
So if you meet me there
Can you imagine? Oh just imagine
