

Bones Shake

Hazlett

Pick your poison
One day they'll stop calling
Burn my ego
My friends are more than people

Choked on envy
Won't somebody come get me
Choose your partner
Find them slow dancing with another

Lay me down in the woods
Until I've overgrown the things I should
You know I'd love to stay
At least until I can feel my bones shake
Feel my bones shake

Run from okay
Turned up too late
It comes and ghosts me
Sick of saying I'm lonely

Digging in my own grave
Trace the mistake
Someone hurt you
Sleep in if you want to

Lay me down in the woods
Until I've overgrown the things I should
You know I'd love to stay
At least until I can feel my bones shake
Feel my bones shake
Feel my bones shake
