

Mama's Boy

Hazlett

They're building castles in the streets
So heavy shadows on your cheek
They heard there's peace in him that's good
Hope it can stop him saying things he shouldn't

Oh you mammas boy
Don't stay the night
If you plan on breaking
Hearts to make some noise
Don't make me cry
Can you walk me home

Mmmm

Sleep in a field of marigold
You need the space for growing old
He works on his apology
She won't accept without sincerity

Oh you mammas boy
Don't stay the night
If you plan on breaking
Hearts to make some noise
Don't make me cry
Can you walk me home

Mmmm
