

Breaking the Fortress

hazydecay

In a piece of my time
I left my fear
I left it there we broke apart
This place is a firing line
And You are not here
I've got nothing but a force of my heart
Oh Dear You're gone
For far too long
Behind barriers the hide You
I can't hold on
To stay alone
I'm breaking the fortress

Heaven was sent to walk away
While I needed some shelter
Trying to change the way of life
I'll find You!

No matter if it's rain
Or the sky is clear
For me now the world is small
I crossed oceans of pain
And You are so near
I'm gonna take You home
That's all

Oh Dear You're gone
To me You belong
Beyond the walls they hide You
I just can't hold on Staying alone
And I'm breaking the fortress
Heaven was sent to walk away
While I needed some shelter
Trying to change the way of life
I'll find You!
You are unchained - As You should be
We're both together now!

Heaven was sent to walk away
While I needed some shelter
Trying to change the way of life
I'll find You!
You are unchained - As You should be
So I'm breaking the fortress!
