

Better Than You

Hc3

I wake up each day, I'm a schizophrenic... I see strange people, in my head
Life is intolerable, so what else can I do..... And all the time I
'm thinking what is this life for

Ref:

You have got a time to change, to change your life
And every hour will be all right
Time to move into a different life
Every minute will be all right
So go!

I have nothing I am no one, don't wanna feel emotions... I would like to be a normal man

But every minute, every second is so painful.... I want to be in different space

I'm obscured by pain, maybe I'm another sacrifice.... I'm obscur ed by love, is it the only way to stay alive?

Give me your love, give me love, I'm tired... I would like to be a man

Give me your love, give me love, I'm tire... Just say go
