

Immortality

Hc3

Sad old man is looking for the truth, he's counting all the past days
Some days bad, some days he'll never forget, he prays for immortality
Are you gonna go his way? Are you gonna go his way? In death we're all the same
You're gonna go his way right now
Philanthropic child

Ref:

Hey you, nothing's gonna happened, the party night is over
Hey you, nothing's gonna happened, the other side is waiting

Sad old man is blinding by the sun, is there a sun on the other side?
Some days black, some days were full of silence, he prays for immortality
Are you gonna go his way? Are you gonna go his way? In death we're all the same
You're gonna go his way right now
In death we're all the same

Ref:

Hey you, nothing's gonna happened, the other side is waiting

Time's passing, time's passing by, every day is closer to death
He spent his life by opening minds, maybe all good things which we ever made will help us to immortality, and maybe one day after all the shame
Human's world, Better place

Ref:
