

I'm looking at you, are you still sleeping next to me? And only God knows reality
How should I cry, why are you still ignoring me? And only dream s are catching me

Ref: What I have to say, she's all I ever had, but she's leavin g me today
I'm falling into a grave, it's getting cold and dark, and she's leaving me tonight

Cloudy day is leading me to you, please kill me now, I can't st ay here
Lonely mind, as lonely as you are, don't tell me lies, I'm blee ding here

Ref: What I have to say, she's all I ever had, but she's leavin
g me today
I'm falling into a grave, it's getting cold and dark, and
she's leaving me tonight

I can't sleep I'm holding down.....holding down I'm feeling blue.....it's up to you I can't eat I'm holding down.....holding down What I will do....it's up to you.....I just bleed I'm holding d own

Ref: What I have to say, she's all I ever had, but she's leavin
g me today
I'm falling into a grave, it's getting cold and dark, and
she's leaving me tonight
