

How did you find your career goals?...Do you know what's the life for?

The most important thing on my way is beliving in something, maybe someday

I'm staring at the sky...I'm just a little child...but I don't need someones help at all

I used to swimm in stars...I have my own space...cometely free...I'll l by myself

Ref:

I'm so happy this moment is mine...I feel it in every breath right now

I don't have to miss these colours high...It comes only once in the lifetime

How did you find your career goals?...Do you know what's the life for

The most important thing on my way is beliving in something, maybe someday

There's no need to worry...I'll make it all for you...I'm so happy when you're laughing yeaah

Itching in my stomach and the ringing in my head...If I had to see this day again...this day again

Ref:

I'm so happy this moment is mine...I feel it in every breath right now

I don't have to miss these colours high...It comes only once in the lifetime

It comes only once in the lifetime

There's no worry to be sad...enjoy the day...there's no worry love the rain...enjoy the day

There's no worry to be sad...enjoy the day...there's no worry love the pain...love the pain

I'm so happy this moment is mine...I feel it in every breath right now

I don't have to miss these colours high...It comes only once in the lifetime
