

Common struggle, common, common struggle
Everydays life so boring, in this fucking little town
The people are staring at me, I don't know, I don't know why
All persons so homothetic, they seems to be clowns in slime
Misunderstanding all you see, please friend tell me, why, why, why!!!

Ref:

So what do you wanna from me
I'm empty because of you
Can't stand your smile over me
Leave me alone, this is for my life

Disgusting frustration here, everyone knows my eyes
I wish I was dirty blind man, reaching for a higher grounds
Misunderstanding all I see, they seems to be clowns in dime
Friend tell me why, why, why, please people just let me be!!!

Leave me alone, this is for my life

Stay away from me, please don't look at me, just stay away from
