

There's a man inside my mirror
Between my face, the flame and me
The tune he sings can't be much clearer
He's asking me to set him free

I learned my lesson
Paid my time
This blank expression
Prepare to die
Hear my confession
My dauntless plea
This house I'm haunting
Is haunting me

There's a storm cloud looming over
An irreverent angry sea
Each time I visit my reflection, oh
Reminding the ghost is me

I learned my lesson
Paid my time
This blank expression
Prepare to die
Hear my confession
My dauntless plea
This house unholy
Is haunting me

As long as you're free
I can not be
As long as you're free
I can not be
