Something, Something, Something Witchy

He Is Legend

Did you just assume
I'd let you float across my room
In your bubblegum perfume
Straddling a thousand dollar broom

Once bitten, twice chewed
You're mine now
Yeah you
Once bitten, twice chewed
I got you baby what can you do?

You keep your eyes on me
And I won't take my mouth off you

Your blood and your sweat
Pool up like spit before vomit
You taste so sticky and sweet
How could you not expect me to show my teeth?

Once bitten, twice chewed
You're mine now
Yeah you
Once bitten, twice chewed
I got you baby what can you do?

You keep your eyes on me
And I won't take my mouth off you

In purple bind you
Lock you away
Where no light will find you
My witchy slave

Once bitten, twice chewed
You're mine now
Yeah you
Once bitten, twice chewed
I got you baby what can you do?

Once bitten, twice chewed
You're mine now.
Yeah you
Once bitten, twice chewed
I got you baby what can you do?

You keep your eyes on me
And I won't take my mouth off you
