

The Primarily Blues

He Is Legend

So now if I could just stand there underneath your weather
No mind the hole that's in my shoe
Just keep raining, make it all feel better
Soaked to the bone in you
Here's to your bones --

Don't know why its so dry in my head (in my head)
Hiding from you
Don't know why you're so primary red,
I'm primarily blue

It's so dark here, and heavier than ever
Just sit still and stay uncool
Damn the eye, the ever-drifting feather
Damn the mind, the useless tool

Don't know why it's so dry in my head (in my head)
Hiding from you
Don't know why you're so primary red,
I'm primarily blue

Please tell me why,
Why you're higher
Everyone is standing by
(Where are you?)
Awaiting your reply

I don't know exactly why I'm hiding
I don't know exactly why I'm hiding
