

Like a Wave

He Is We

I wasn't looking for love
Had my eyes closed and my head down
With my feet buried deep in the past
But somehow
You got me to try
So I inhaled and I let go
You carried me to the sea
Of the great unknown

You came in like a wave
Riptide and took my breath away
Breath away
You brought me to the deep
You filled my lungs while kissing me
You're all I need
At the point where we sink or we swim
I'd rather drown with you now
Than breathe again
Breathe again

We're intertwined it seems
Moving slow
Like we're dancing w
I'm not afraid of the waves
I know you'll hold me
You got me to feel
What I lost
In all the chaos
I accept I was swept
By your mystery

You came in like a wave
Riptide and took my breath away
Breath away
You brought me to the deep
You filled my lungs while kissing me
You're all I need
At the point where we sink or we swim
I'd rather drown with you now
Than breathe again
Breathe again

What is living
If I don't have you anymore
Take me down down down to the ocean floor
To the ocean floor
