

Answer me
Body why do you ache me?
To keep ambition alive?
Relentlessly, it's you forsaking me
But you'll never eat me alive

You're never going to see anything like me

Breathlessly I ran from a seething sheik
Two rats at odds for the prize
Believe you me, the cancer which you speak
Will never eat me alive

You're never going to see anything like me

It's a thousand to one
Two hands on one gun
Socialize, dollar prize
Yelling onward
Telling lies
Then you've got a thousand to one

You've seen a thousand to one
I seen a ficklest in the sun
It's American surprise:
Side of Islam
Side of lies
Then you've got a thousand to one right here

You'll never take me alive
You'll never eat me alive

You're never going to see anything like me

It's been a crazy winter
It's gonna be a crazy summer
