

Psalm 35

Headie One

Turn, turn, turn, turn

Just stepped off a boat, Monaco, I'm seasick
Again, I'm at the top of the charts, no remix
Hoes on my coat, expensive fleeces
The lyrics come fresh out the box, no creases (Teach me)
Never listened to my pastors preaching
I got baptised in my rose gold pieces
They think I'm possessed by demons
Outside the church, they would hand out leaflets (Told me turn, ayy)
My step ma was a bitch, she used to make me beg her to feed me
Tell my Pops that I hate him so deeply
Deep down, he knew I didn't mean it
I was out in my tracksuit, tryna figure out how to get it in easiest
'Til the feds went and put me on their radar, it was concern, conspiracy and
PWITS

God, thank the Lord for my freedom
I'm livin' proof that prayer is needed
My mind is a war zone, nah, bro, I can never tell those secrets
Again, those nightmares, Chatitas Express is supposed to dream with (One)
I could give you a Bible verse I'd fall asleep with (Turn)
Then I'd turn to mine enemies (Teach me)
Succeed, tryna get the best of me
Wrongly rejoice over me (Turn, turn)
Edna watchin' over me
Neither let them wink with the eye that who hate me without cause
Let them be confounded and put to shame, all those who seek after my soul

Psalm 35, do you know the meaning?
In my cell, nothin' to do, I'm reading
Reading into my palms, I can't leave it
It's just me, the four walls and ceiling (Turn)
They told me turn, I watched the full moon through the barbed wire while leaning
Was really tryna make a way, that white and B just put me on the B wing
How much time did I do with cleaning? I hit the opp blocks, some did it for the team ting
Get the 3.5 then go read Psalm 35, go there on demon
Comin' from a broken home so today, I'm still pickin' up the bits and pieces
(Ah, ah)
Show no emotion, feeding the pain, I can't show no weakness

God, thank the Lord for my freedom
I'm livin' proof that prayer is needed
My mind is a war zone, nah, bro, I can never tell those secrets
Again, those nightmares, Chatitas Express is supposed to dream with (One)
I could give you a Bible verse I'd fall asleep with (Turn)
Then I'd turn to mine enemies (Teach me)
Succeed, tryna get the best of me (Teach me)
Wrongly rejoice over me (Turn, turn)
Edna watchin' over me
Neither let them wink with the eye that who hate me without cause
Let them be confounded and put to shame, all those who seek after my soul (Turn, turn, turn, ooh)
