Headie One

Yo

They ain't realize it when I was out trapping
And caught with the judge back and fourth [?] backspin
This one time my barrister ain't make it happen
My homies gone low and he wants me to patten
Who's never had me he want me to have him
I'm drinking alone and I'm smoking on cali
Can see the whole city my view panoramic
She would have fucked then now this bitch tryna trap me (Turn)
It can't be this number 1 album (Turn)
She spent too much money on makeup (Turn, turn)
For it to end up on my Calvins (Turn)
Said she señorita speak Spanish
Don't listen to drill said she prefers some J Balvin
She was telling her friends she in love but she capping
I was just an experience I apart of her troubles
I come from the trench made it happen
Now the whole trench on my back I'm a camel
These hoes out here looking for come-ups they scamming
My homegirl was here from the start miss her badly
She weren't the one do the things for the clout with me
Fans love when I'm keeping up badness (Turn)
Though the outcome is tragic
Done so much I'm proud of I thought I'd be happy but no

Satisfy me

Satisfy me

Though the outcome is tragic
Done so much I'm proud of I thought I'd be happy but no

Platinum plaques on my wall
But when I'm in need I got no one to call
The label phoned in they in need of a hit
There's pressure on me we approaching the 4
I never knew better than buying some guns
And a dusty old mic [?]
True feeling is when you're coming from nothing
Should I be feeling the pressure at all?
I got a phone call shorty told me I'm changing (Turn)
Is that the line you're gonna hit me with? (One)
You're going cliché on me baby
I got her a [?] things were different
I come from imprisonment man I used to daydream of this Look what I did of this (Look what I did)
You say you need me but the fans need me
They love my voice on these instruments (One)
I got into a penthouse phoning my girlfriend
Relist on my managers
I referred to myself as headie last night (Uh)
And it was no accident (Uh)
They want me to trade in the vision for the millions

But I'm too passionate (Nuh)
My pops always said I got too much friends
That's as close as it's come to being accurate

(Turn)
(Turn, turn)
(Turn, turn)
(Suh-suh-suh-suh-suh-suh)
