

Sirens

Headie One

Sirens

All you ever hear on the block is sirens
Growing up chilling on the block, hear sirens
Just another day on the block hear sirens

Sirens

All you ever hear on the block is sirens
Growing up chilling on the block, hear sirens
Just another day on the block hear sirens

Top floor for a few nights

Tryna dodge the hood becah it's fire, everyday I see those blue lights
Still 90 on the M, we're in a new ride
Cling, vase's and a few wipes from tryna make a new life
I love to do it with my old friends, cah we was stacking twenties tryna fold them

It was '09 and '010

I was 17 when I jumped on a train to link a coke fiend
Now I'm trap phone gyming with no protein
See I'm all about my risks that's if you know me
Two times I never made it home from OT
Call me stubborn or whatever you wanna call me

I was on the wing

Barely had the money for a call, she weren't answering my calls
Now take a guess who isn't answering at all
Fuck these sirens I gotta ball, now they uncomfortable
Becah I got the sauce

Sirens

All you ever hear on the block is sirens
Growing up chilling on the block, hear sirens
Just another day on the block hear sirens

Sirens

All you ever hear on the block is sirens
Growing up chilling on the block, hear sirens
Just another day on the block hear sirens

The gang been spreading metal pebbles

Them niggas spreading rumours, got my palm on that Luger tryna catch a brain tumour

Weeks in the T, was getting tired of that Puma trackie

Paid 6 bills for a Z, I ain't new to trapping

Big stitch True Religion jeans, I ain't new to fashion

We paid 8 for that dots, we ain't new to cashing

17 in the Bailey, we ain't new to crashing

Chrome free, trigger all fucked we ain't new to handtings

8 times I sat through induction, I ain't new to landings

What you know about riding?

Done a drilling, 10 seconds later all you hear is sirens

We ain't new to madness, tryna take OFB through the atlas

Doing road managing my canvas

Doing O, practice makes perfect, perfection from practice

Done up solitary confinement, feds want me fresh home again needing a consignment

Sirens

All you ever hear on the block is sirens

Growing up chilling on the block, hear sirens
Just another day on the block hear sirens
Sirens
All you ever hear on the block is sirens
Growing up chilling on the block, hear sirens
Just another day on the block hear sirens
