

Cherry Tulips

Headlights

i can't sleep in silence can't be pitch black in my room i need some lights on, some distraction so i won't move

and in the middle of the night when i have drifted off in sleep
i see a thousand cherry tulips lined up
along my street

i want the sea
i want the whole sea
(and endless cherries)
for you and me
(for crimson colors)
for you and me
(all just for you and me)

and in in the middle of the night when i have drifted off in sleep
i see a thousand cherry tulips lined up
along my street

i want the sea
i want the whole sea
(and endless cherries)
for you and me
(for crimson colors)
for you and me
(all just for you and me)

i want the sea
i want the whole sea
(and endless cherries)
for you and me
(all crimson colors)
for you and me
(all just for you and me)
