

Captain of the Shit Out of Luck

Headstones

Everything about it
Makes me wanna doubt it
Think I better just let it go

And yesterday was sickening
And all the things that might have been
I suddenly let go of the rope

You know that ship has sailed
And everyone's been nailed
To the mast of the shit out of luck

Where everyone's a victim
And they're blinded by the ambition
On an ocean of it's never enough

Then you painted a picture
Now everyone knows
That's how it goes

Big important finger
Pointing all your fingers
Smiling 'til the day you get caught

It's not so fucking intricate
And I don't care to witness it
Be better if you simply fucked off (fucked off)

Hey, it's what the truth is
All you got are nooses
You're the captain of the shit out of luck

We got your resignation letter
And we all feel better
And you gotta know we'll never give up

Well, you painted a picture
Now everyone knows
You're on your own

You know that ship has sailed
And everyone's been nailed
To the mast of the shit out of luck

Where everyone's a victim
And they're blinded by the ambition
On an ocean of it's never enough

Ain't no broken finger
Pointing all your fingers
Smiling 'til the day you get caught

It's not so fucking intricate
We don't care to witness it
You're better if you simply fucked off
