

Laugh Lines

Headstones

The laugh lines are
No surprise when the
Crow's flyin' away from me
I tried to focus on somethin' farther down the street
Create some new memories

I threw a brick through the glass of the black sunshine
(Through the mask of the laughing lines)
(Through the mask of the laughing lines)

I hit the other side
If only
(It's the other side)
If only
(It's the other side)
If only lonely dies
If only
(It's the other side)
If only lonely dies

I don't know what I expected
A bag of money and a perfect tan
I try to focus on somethin' farther down the street
Well, do ya' know what I mean?

I threw a brick through the glass of the black sunshine
(Through the mask of the laughing lines)
(Through the mask of the laughing lines)

I hit the other side
If only
(It's the other side)
If only
(It's the other side)
If only lonely dies
If only
(It's the other side)
If only lonely dies

I threw a brick through the glass of the black sunshine
(Through the mask of the laughing lines)
I threw a brick through the glass of the black sunshine
(Through the mask of the laughing lines)

The laugh lines are
No surprise when the
Crow's flyin' on back to me
I try to focus on somethin' farther down the street
Well, do ya' know what I mean?

(Through the mask of the laughing lines)

I hit the other side
If only
(It's the other side)
If only
(It's the other side)

If only lonely dies
If only
(It's the other side)
If only
(It's the other side)
If only lonely dies
(It's the other side)
If only lonely dies
