

She Just Wants To Cry

Headstones

6 teeth are missing and 7 days are loose
My eyes are rolled back and
I'll get them tattooed too
As long as it takes me this long to confront
My misbehavior I've stuffed into a trunk
That's how it's done
She just wants to cry
She just wants to cry
Wants to cry and blow away
She just wants to cry
And me I want to drive
I wanna car that has no brakes

2 knuckles are broken the digits are fucked
2 million drinks just to power the tongue
It's been a big night and I paint the town red
Backed into a corner without doing anything
Anything
She just wants to cry
She just wants to cry
Wants to cry and blow away
She just wants to cry
And me I want to drive
I wanna car that has no brakes yeah
No brakes no, no brakes
Now you've pushed me so far away
You left me spinning
Now you've pushed me so far away
Obsessive oblivion

I can hear the headlights... movin'
One eye is blinded and my face and hair are singed
I am reminded that the cartilage is cream
Busted sights on a broken gun
In a busted hand that is ready to go off
Ready to go off
