

The View Here

Headstones

The view here is amazing
From here to kingdom come
The eyes are penetrating
I question what they've done

But whole thing's moving faster
If only I could see
They tell me it's amazing
But they say it violently

The world's spinning faster
And it seems slower by the sea

It's just a painful, and I should have seen it coming
Shameful, but you're smiling away
Hateful, but now they got it coming
And I won't be something like
Shame on me
(Ooh, oh-oh-oh)
(Ooh, oh-oh-oh)

And now I just keep thinking
I'm inconveniently aware?
I phoned in a Wednesday
To a place that wasn't there

And now I just keep thinking
And now I just keep thinking
The whole thing's spinning faster
If only we could see

The view here is amazing
They keep telling me

It's just a painful when you should have seen it coming
Shameful, but you're smiling away
Hateful, 'cause now they got it coming
And I won't be something like
Shame on me
(Ooh, oh-oh-oh)
(Ooh, oh-oh-oh)

So, I go alone in this world of neglect
Where the relative is a common world to protect
A limited education by a ticket to ride
And I'm predictable motives

Just look me in the eye

The view here is amazing
From here to kingdom come
Consistently is changing
Not quite sure what we've done

The whole thing's spinning faster
And now that I can see
It's certainly amazing

I see it finally

The whole thing's getting faster
But it's nicer by the sea

It's just a painful when you should have seen it coming
Shameful, but you're smiling away
Hateful, 'cause now they got it coming
And I won't be something like
Shame on me
(Ooh, oh-oh-oh)
(Ooh, oh-oh-oh)

The whole's spinning faster
But it's nicer by the sea (ooh, oh-oh-oh)
The whole's spinning faster
When it's nicer by the sea (ooh, oh-oh-oh)
