

STILL BREATHING

Health

One more pill, knock me out
I might die full of doubt
I don't care anyway
I don't want to see the day
I don't want to see the day
I don't want to see the day

Hold on awhile, you're still young
It gets better sometimes

I drank too much, can't feel my face
I feel dead, I've lost my taste
Six more hours 'til you're here
Hope the shadows disappear

Hold on tonight, you're too young
It gets better for a little while

It could happen to anyone
The tears on your face, drops in the stream
And I'm scared for you, it could happen to anyone
The tears on your face don't mean a thing to them

Bloody rich, coming back
Gave my bitch a heart attack
Twenty lines, white snow
Just let me go
I don't want to see the day
I don't want to see the day

Hold on awhile, you're still young
It gets better sometimes
Hold on tonight, you're too young

It could happen to anyone
The tears on your face, drops in the stream
I'm scared for you, it could happen to anyone
The tears on your face don't mean a thing to them
It could have happened to me
The tears on your face, drops in the stream
I'm scared for you, it could happen to anyone
The tears on your face don't mean a thing to them

I don't want to see the day
I don't want to see the day
