

Another Lover

Hear'Say

I'd be lying if I didn't tell you how the story went
You see he wasn't like the other guys that I had ever met

That's why I'm holding tight every night
(I go outta my mind)
Thinking bout where you could be
No you're not with me
Where you go I need to be
(Chasing you constantly)
Instead I believe
That's why

You don't have no lover
You love no one else but me
Yeah you will remember
You see no one else but me

All I ever wanted was someone to show me
What it could be like and would feel to be
As soon as I discovered there is nothing better
My baby and me
And that's why

You don't have no lover
You love no one else but me
Yeah you will remember
You see no one else but me

He don't have no other
He loves no one else but me
Girl you must remember
He sees no one else but me

That's why I'm holding tight every night
(I go outta my mind)
Thinking bout where you could be
No you're not with me
Where you go I need to be
(Chasing you constantly)
Instead I believe
That's why

You don't have no lover
You love no one else but me
Yeah you will remember
You see no one else but me
