

9 On Your Bedside

Heart Attack Man

Kill you in your sleep
Quick and painless, short and easy
I wish I could end it all and just set you free

Blowing up your phone, I won't just leave you alone
I can't let it go
I followed you home and I watched you through your window
Of all my enemies, you're first in line
I'm just waiting for the perfect time
This isn't over until I say so

Wide awake at 4 AM, you're paranoid and worrying
The anticipation is killing me
I wanna see your name in memoriam
You ruined everything
Got the best of me
You'll be sorry you ever crossed me

Kill you in your sleep
Quick and painless, short and easy
I wish I could end it all and just set you free
This will never end till one of us is dead
And it won't be me
Put you out of your misery
Kill you in your sleep

Backed up into a corner like a dog
Hold my breath, life or death, right or wrong
Played it out in your head, how this is gonna end
Two ways that we're both decided on
Don't make, don't make me do this
So close, so close to losing it
Nightmares, nightmares when I'm awake
It's all beyond lucid

Don't make me do this...

Kill you in your sleep
Quick and painless, short and easy
I wish I could end it all and just set you free
This will never end till one of us is dead
And it won't be me
Put you out of your misery
Kill you in your sleep

You got a 9 on your bedside
It's your only peace of mind tonight
You got a 9 on your bedside
The only thing keeping you alive
You got a 9 on your bedside
A death wish and revenge coincide
You got a 9 on your bedside

Kill you in your sleep
Quick and painless, short and easy
Kill you in your sleep
