

Crisis Actor

Heart Attack Man

Open up the package
Peel off the plastic
Preheat it and feed to the masses
I feel so apathetic
It sounds so synthetic Poorly scripted and horribly directed

Sell me on the description
Abuse me like a prescription
Watered down and cut far beyond recognition
You pretend to be perfect, but only on the surface
The front you put up defeats the purpose

Just say your lines while you're slowly rotting on the inside
With you it's one or the other
Using all of the buzzwords
You say "Fuck the police", but you're really one of them underc over
Gather all of your tokens
Bag 'em up with a slogan you can sell
Hide your ugly side inside
Your secret's safe and no one can tell

You have the right to remain silent
Anything you say can and will be used against you in a court of law
You have the right to an attorney
If you cannot afford an attorney, one will be provided for you

Just say your lines
Just say your lines
Just say your lines
Just say 'em
Just say your lines while you're slowly rotting on the inside
(Slowly rotting on the inside)
Slowly rotting on the inside
