

Joyride The Pale Horse

Heart Attack Man

It's been a pleasure, thank you everyone for coming out
I've clearly overstayed my welcome, best be going now
I'll see you later, but it might be in another life
I still struggle, cuz I was never good at goodbyes
Hope you have a good night
I'm well aware that this is so melodramatic
Tell everyone I'm sorry for suddenly departing
I know it's not my style, going out, kicked from under like a habit

Joyride the pale horse
I've got a secret handshake with Elvis
All expenses are paid for
My bags are packed and everyone's jealous

I practiced all my lines, what I'm gonna say
I drew the blinds and I threw my stuff away
I know it isn't fun, but it's the honest truth
I'll see you all again, I promise you

Welcome to the part where I explode
And burn out on a road to nowhere
Drift away to nothing
Acting like you didn't see it coming
Now everyone pretends to love me
But no one cares

Joyride the pale horse
I've got a secret handshake with Elvis
All expenses are paid for
My bags are packed and everyone's jealous
