

Taking Sides

Heart Attack Man

Tell me everything you know I want to hear
And I'll pretend that nothing's wrong and slowly disappear
I'll fade off the radar for a while
You'll see me on occasion
Shake my hand and force a smile
You still act as if we're friends
But I don't see the point in that
Why would you pretend
Everything is just the way that it used to be
Before I was soon to be completely excommunicated
And cut so cleanly

I can't take this anymore
I've had it up to here with all of your excuses
Act like everything's the same and no one's taking sides
But I feel so excluded

It's nice to know that everything will be the same
Soon enough you'll act like you don't know my name
It's nice to know that everything
That everything will be the same

I can't take this anymore
I've had it up to here with all of your excuses
Act like everything's the same and no one's taking sides
But I feel so excluded
I can't take this anymore
I've had it up to here with all of your excuses
Act like everything's the same and no one's taking sides
But I feel so excluded
