

Ghost

Heart of a Coward

The shadows pull me under
Sinking into my memories
Recurring visions that slowly decay
The depths are so familiar
The darkness dwells within
I watch their faces slowly fade away

I'm haunted by my shadow
The darkness that resides in every single thing
It draws me closer
Pulls me deeper
The ghost resides within

Descend, my shadows swallow me
I can't escape the vivid memory
Tormented by their faces, I see them fade away
Lost in the memory of a ghost I see within me

Pull me deeper, into my memories
Pull me deeper, into the depths

I'm haunted by my shadow
The darkness that resides in every single thing
It draws me closer
Pulls me deeper
The ghost resides within

Haunted by the shadow that's within
Haunted by the pain that remains

The shadow remains

Pull me deeper, into my memories
Pull me deeper, into the depths
Pull me deeper, my shadows swallow me
Pull me deeper, become the ghost
