

Ritual

Heart of a Coward

Douse the pyre, rejoice in flame
Everything has its time to burn
A ritual of desire
Now burn in the flame
Did you think turn away?
Did you think this is something to escape?
There's nothing left, rejoice in the flame

We are the pain that's inside you
It is the pain that you seek
We are the constant reminder
That there is no escape

All-consuming fire
Burning through every moment, we are bound to this ritual

Just let (Just let) it burn (It burn)
There's only so much you can take of this torture
So torn and twisted up, fuel for the flame
You'll never see what this has done to you unless you face up t o the fire (The fire)
As everything burns, rejoice in the flame

All-consuming fire
Burning through every moment, we are bound to this ritual
All-consuming fire
Burning through every moment, we are bound to this ritual

We are bound to this ritual
So light that torch for the flame that's within us all
Just let it burn

There's no escape
There's no escape
There's no escape
