

Hap'n' Frog

Heather Alexander

Hap'n Frog in the summer rain, munchin' on flies and he can't complain-Callin' "Mr. Raccoon are you still there?"
and he's answered back by the tortoise and hare-

Singin' "Hey, hey, what do you say?
Let's all dance on a summer's day!"
"Hey, hey, what do you say?
Let's all dance on a summer's day!"

Hap'n Frog and he's singing a song, makin' up words as he hops along-Finally sees Mr. Red Raccoon, and together they make up a dandy tune!

Hap'n Frog and he's hitchin' a ride, gets picked up by the ocean tide-
The waves they troll him out to sea,
But he can swim better than you or me!

Hap'n Frog's caught by a bird, screamin' so loud Mr. Raccoon heard-
Mr. Raccoon comes then to settle the score,
'Cause that's what the Froggie's friends are for!

Hap'n Frog's singing in the rain,
Mr. Raccoon's got a new refrain-Together they're joined by the tortoise and hare, and there never was a summer night so fair!
