

Beginner

Heather Nova

You're teaching me to love
Here on the edge of winter
The sky has opened up
I feel like a beginner

I built the walls so high
Forgot how to surrender
The fortress of my mind
I disguised my fear

And all the fields that burned to make the soil darker
I thought I'd never learn to trust another 'til you

I'm at the starting line, hold my hand
I wanna walk this life with you

I feel like a beginner
I feel like a beginner

I think I'm letting go
The trust that makes it so good
In darker soil grows
I feel like a beginner
Your skin against my skin

I feel like a beginner
I feel like a beginner
I feel like a beginner
