

Hey Poseidon

Heather Nova

Sailing south out of Sikinos
On a warm meltemi breeze
Salt air a sweet reminder
Of an old forgotten dream
Anchors down in a white washed town
Maybe I could take a chance
Found a rooftop bar playing tunes
That made me wanna dance

And I think of your heart and your mind
I think of the passing of time

Hey Poseidon
I've got so much riding
On this love
Waves are rolling
I'm holding out and hoping for this love

Found my way to the monastery
High up on a ridge
Sunlight and a peace inside
Yeah that's my holiness
I could grow old wandering
Still following the dream
Trying to find my way back
To what I once believed

And I think of your heart and your mind
I think of the passing of time

Hey Poseidon
I've got so much riding
On this love
Waves are rolling
I'm holding out and hoping for this love
Hoping for love, for this love

And I think of your heart and your mind
I think of the passing of time

Hey Poseidon
I've got so much riding
On this love
Waves are rolling
I'm holding out and hoping for this love

Hey Poseidon
I've got so much riding
On this love
Waves are rolling
I'm holding out and hoping for this love...
