

Sweet Miranda made a burnin' in my throat
And I'm slumped in the bathtub now like a sunken boat

So when will you leave me?
When will you leave me?
When will you leave me?
Leave me alone for a while?
'Cause I can't try to be happy without you

Leave me to my bourbon
It's a private kind of thing
And don't bother to tell me
What you really think

So when will you leave me?
When will you leave me?
When will you leave me?
Leave me alone for a while?
'Cause I can't try to be happy without you

'Cause I left everything that meant something
So I could become something

If you ever see me in the arms of a gutter out in the 'burbs
Just say man he's finally getting all the love he deserves

So when will you leave me?
When will you leave me?
When will you leave me?
Leave me alone for a while?
