

A Look Inside

Heavatar

Where I've been drifting all my life?
Seeking places deep inside
Always off to leave and on my way

Why did I open up my mind?
Striving for this look inside
Giving shelter to the final decay

My honest mind broke an obvious taboo
Ignoring all my feelings towards you

Rays of light trench the silence
Granting us this look inside

Sending sounds into a void of silence
It's all hollow words and thoughts untied
Throwing light into the abyss of blindness
Granting all of us a look inside

Finding time to prize all human kindness
Granting all of us a look inside
