

Double The Pain

Heaven & Hell

A stab in the back is worth waiting for tonight
he's seen enough joy for today.

A sudden attack
would just start the evening right and maybe a penance to pay

Thunder and lightning
Electric machines
These are the devils
That shout in his dreams

Double the pain
He's strong he will survive
Double the pain
It will make him come alive
Double the pain

Games of the heart
Not fair and you can't win but torture and anger can play You've never said no to just another spin and loosing is one step away

Friendly confusion
like nothing you've seen these are the demons
that shout in his dreams

A slap in the face to bring him back around it's a touch-like cool morning rain

He's fallen from grace and slammed to the ground and begs for some more of the same

Thunder and lightning
Eccentric machines
these are the devils that shout in his dreams

Double the pain
I'm sure I saw him smile
Double the pain
Let's kick him for a while Double the pain
