

La Résistance

Heaven Shall Burn

I speak of truth
And sacrifice
Yes, here I am to end
This rightless rule at last
High high high
High were your dreadful hopes
High high high
High are your casualties

Yes, I defy your leaders

As long as this heart beats, there will be defiance
As long as these eyes see, they'll look for hope
Ad infinitum, all the hatred you invoke
Only one spark to light the masses, to turn the fearful calm
Into a raging storm to liberate this world

I dream of peace and equity
But all this oppression, it leaves no choice for me
Hei Hei Hei
Heidegger is marching
High high high
High minded and reckless

As long as this heart beats, there will be defiance
As long as these eyes see, they'll look for hope
You'll never break these hands
As long as I breathe, I'll clench my fists

Ad infinitum, all the hatred you invoke
Only one spark to light the masses, to turn the fearful calm in to
A raging storm, to liberate this world

Unbroken
Hard minded
Unbroken
Hard minded
