

Protector

Heaven Shall Burn

(I am your shield and sword)

We rise

Believe me
This is the very end
Still I am chosen
To protect and defend
Ride burning skies
Cross dying worlds
But after all, I stand alone
And fight this vital war

I joined this war for you
To front the chosen few

Fight until the time has come
And cry for all the fallen ones
No fear of pain, no strife in vain
Land is in sight, new hope will rise

Don't be afraid, I'm by your side
So strong in mind, we'll take their hearts by storm
And no amnesty for our enemies
I am your shield and sword

Just carry on until the day is won
All hail the world, we bow to none
And I am here to heal
You have to know
I'll treat your bleeding wounds
Endure the pain, take all the strain
All doubt denied, grace will abide

I'll win this war for you

Don't be afraid, I'm by your side
So strong in mind, we'll take their hearts by storm
And no amnesty for our enemies
This dark dominion will be torn

No oblivion
I've seen your darkest days
We've been through hell together
A proven bond forever true
To ourselves
There's no denying
I am the last resort
This pure commitment is so firm
My iron will undying

I end this war for you
For fury and justice, I will take a stand
Regain your sight, embrace the light
For peace of mind, leave them behind

Don't be afraid, I'm by your side

So strong in mind, we'll take their hearts by storm
And no amnesty for all their felonies
A new dominion will be born

I am your shield and sword
This new dominion will be born
