

Different Day

Heavenly

Up in your hair
Up in your hair

A waterfall down across your eyes
When I draw it back you look so surprised
If I looked out at the things you do
I'd feel used, so confused

Up in your head
Up in your head

How can I tell what goes on up there?
Am I in your mind? Do you even care?
And all the times that we lie so near
Do you feel so unclear?

I know all the things I should say
But it's so hard and
I'm not sure I want to anyway

On a different day
In a different way
I'd be the one to catch your heart when it falls
On a different day
In a different way
I'd give you, give you, give you, give you it all

Down in your heart
Down in your heart

I bet it's warm and I bet it's kind and I bet it hurts even more than mine
If I could hole myself up in you
I'd feel too good to move
