(Hed) P.E.

Know your enemies well
They enter your life
Disguised as your friends
Know your enemies well
They're in the next room
Waiting for you to fall asleep

Why?

I don't know how you can live such a....
Lie....
To yourself, now I know who you are
Why?
I can forgive, but I'll never forget
How you put a price on my head!

So little I can say
And less that I can do

To make you understand
These things you put me through
There's got to be a better way!
There's got to be a better way!

They're trying to silence my voice
They're feeling uncomfortable hearing my words
They wish I would shut the fuck up
Exposing the enemy

Truth always comes at a price

Know your enemies well
Trust nothing and no one
Cuz, everything sucks

Know your enemies well
Don't sleep for a minute
Cuz, that's when you're fucked

There's got to be a better way!...
