

Flesh And Bone

(Hed) P.E.

Another runaway train,
Come and get me...
Another runaway train,
Come and get me...
I'm just a runaway train come and get me
Indecision, a bad decision

Hey Man,
I see you at the crossroads
Hey Man,
I see you at the crossroads
Hey Man,
I see you at the crossroads

Hallelujah I'm coming home
Just let me walk away
Before I lose my faith
I'm running thru the shadows,
In a circle
Trying to find my way

Who's standing in my way?
Why won't you just go away?
Nobody's listening
There's nobody home
Nothing lasts forever
When you're flesh and bone

Another lost soul,
Come and get me
Another lost soul,
Come and get me
I'm just another lost soul come and get me
Find a window
I will be waiting

Hey Man...

Just let me walk away...

Where are we going
And, what can we hold on to?
Why can't you stand by me
And see what I'm going thru?
Just let me walk away...

When you're flesh and bone
We're only flesh and bone
I'm only flesh and bone
